On August 9, 2001 T & J Ventures, LLC, Frenchtown, Montana filed an application for intrastate operating authority. The application was noticed to the public on September 10, 2001. Protests were received and the application was scheduled for public hearing on November 19, 2001. The Applicant requested that the public hearing be vacated and rescheduled. The public hearing was rescheduled for May 7, 2002 and again the applicant contacted this office as requested that the public hearing be vacated and advised that they would be withdrawing their application. They were told to submit that withdrawal in writing on several occasions. On May 22, 2002 a certified letter requesting, in writing, either a withdrawal of the docket or an explanation of their intentions was sent. The letter was returned to this office unclaimed. On June 24, 2002 the certified letter was personally served on the applicant by PSC Field Enforcement Officer Bob Charles. No response has been received.
